Applications are invited on plain paper from currently enrolled MA, M. Phil, and PhD students of the faculty of Arts, Jadavpur University, for a certificate course on "Bodies at the Border" in South Asia and the Americas being offered by the Centre for Studies in Latin American Literatures and Cultures, housed in the Department of Comparative Literature, Jadavpur University. The Course will be conducted in collaboration with Cornell University, and consist of 14 two-hour lecture cum video-conferencing sessions. Candidates may apply with i) a covering letter addressed to Dr. Sucheta Bhattacharya and Sri Partasarathi Bhaumik, Course Coordinators, "Bodies at the Border", CSLALC, Dept. of Comparative Literature, Jadavpur University, mentioning any previous exposure to Latin American Literatures and Cultures, and ii) a 500 -word statement explaining why s/he wishes to take up the course. The covering letter should also include the name of candidate's department, degree programme in which enrolled, and her/his email address and phone number.