Indian and Foreign Languages are taught under the Faculty of Arts, Jadavpur University, as a facility offered to persons within and outside the university community. Classes are held in the evening, to ensure maximum utilization of space and resources, and to enable people from a wide range of academic and professional backgrounds to attend.

At present, Certificate courses are offered in Sanskrit, Bengali, Hindi, French, Spanish, German, Portuguese, Korean, Spanish and Italian. Diploma courses are offered in Bengali, Japanese, French, Sanskrit, Spanish, German, Italian and Portuguese. Advanced Diploma courses are in Bengali, Portuguese and Sanskrit. The Japanese course is an integrated three-year programme leading to a Diploma. The courses are conducted by part-time teachers, many of whom are members of the university faculty in various departments ranging from International Relations to Electrical Engineering. Some teachers are provided by the respective Consulates, as in the case of Italian and Portuguese. An advertisement for the courses is placed in leading newspapers in December, and courses begin in late January. Since the teaching is largely subsidized by the University, course fees are nominal compared to other institutions.

It is ultimately the aim of the School of Languages not only to disseminate language proficiency to aid in tasks such as interpretation, but also to bring the world closer together in a spirit of global co-operation.

- The Portuguese Government awards a few scholarships annually to Indian students to visit Portugal for further studies.
- After their basic training, students will become eligible for scholarships offered for further study in Italy.
- There are similar opportunities in other languages too.
